

Mr Powell: Since most residences will only accomodate one cable into the house (like phone lines), please push for legislation which allows other ISP's to compete with the existing cable companies. This will stimulate competition and prevent monopolistic business dealings and pricing.